Dear Jack
you don't know me from Adam I am just one of a few million people that wish you well
and I hope in some way to give you
hope and courage for what you now
must face.
I don't think you are a bad man any more than I am.

When I think of you that this best for the grace of God go to the electric house
ing the picking of
I wanted nothing
than to stay out the life of me who by thought is much sorrow
to so many people In my way I think it made a man

I'm not sure as far as money goes I never had the other money or back. It's not right in that way.
But I have money
in other ways.
I have the prettiest wife and the best little daughter in the world. I have some real friends. I've got real warm
ones.

If you want to down. I think a man I see you not so. I see and I think that you were trying to achieve that stage.
I see you were a guy pretty much like me that day.
them. I see
see. I see I have a little patients with those that always play safe

I do my best all I can say I wish you didn't have done it
But I think I know
why you did you and I are people that have fought for the American I am
the only one we know Some times I find the row a tough one to lose
But Jack for what it's worth let's go Play the game

Jack
I'm sure you are a very busy man
But I will appreciate reply from you I let me know how I can help
For my little girl

Dear Jack,

Would you please write to me and let me know if you received this letter, this poem, this cross and most of all this valentine.

The valentine that I'm sending to you is a symbol to let you know I understand first hand a person can do a thing that under normal conditions would not think of doing. .... several days later would give anything if only it could be undone. This valentine was returned to me in yesterday's mail from my very favorite and most dear female friend because on January 2nd 1964 I did something over which I had no control. No one but myself knows I really couldn't help it but I couldn't, I couldn't, I couldn't too. With you being a man you wouldn't know the almost unbearable pain a woman does go through on bringing a baby into this world. I have brought six into the world and am in the position to say MENTAL TORTURE is far greater. You must not worry Jack. I have written to Wade, Belli, Brown and Stone. I have warned them that should they decide on the death penalty for you the LORD is going to be greatly angered. I can not predict in just what manner <sup>will</sup> HE ~~might~~ show HIS WRATH but the town will be shaken.

"May God be with you" and have no fear other than the FEAR OF GOD.

We all come into this world innocent and equal. It is not necessarily our immediate parents but only as we come in contact with along the way of life - that makes us what we turn out to be.

14 Come now, and let us reason together, saith the Lord: though your sins be as scarlet, they shall be as
white as snow;
though they be red
like crimson, they shall be as wool.

—Isaiah 1:18

15
Grace be to you and peace from God the Father, and from our Lord Jesus Christ, who gave himself for our sins, that he might deliver us
from this present evil world...

—Colossians 1:3,4

If somehow we could have all the wealth of this world, Which has been used for destruction of man,
To carry the words of the Lord over there,
To the lands where destruction has been.

If through God we could have as many men who have given,
Their lives in those wars over there,
To carry the words of the Lord up above To the banks of shores everywhere.

If through prayer we could install in world leaders the faith Of Moses, of Isaiah, and Paul,
We could land such an army on those distant shores,
Armed only with the power from God That could never fail to make a peace Which could stop destruction and sin.

We could make this world a beautiful place Like the home the Lord has on high, By teaching the words of the Lord to the world, Through this army of Christian men.

Dear Jack,

A prayer for you that God above Will smile on you and bless Your heart, your home and those you love With joy and happiness

Love to you Jack
